As a result of a collision with a machine driven by H. S. Johnson, an engineer in charge of road construction in Ewa district, a Japanese named Masamune was taken to the hospital suffering from many bruises, besides a broken collar bone and arm. The police will make an investigation of the accident. The Japanese was riding a bicycle and both parties claim having traveled on the right side of the road.

If the Correa family had moved to Palolo hill district some years ago at a time an offer was made by a land company, paying a premium of a considerable sum for each child born in the district, a large and imposing bank account would have been their lot. Mrs. G. F. Correa, residing at Kula, Maui, is reported to have presented her husband with their twentieth child. The overjoyed father is fifty-six, while the mother is much younger.

Enrolled as a soldier in the U. S. army, Veltcho N. Madloff, a former Bulgarian soldier, only regrets that he is not free to return to his native land and engage in the war which the united Balkan states are about to wage against the Turks. "Bulgaria has a splendid army of 390,000 men," he said, "and the other Balkan states will look to Czar Ferdinand of Bulgaria to lead them against the Turks. He is an aggressive man and a thorough soldier. Madloff was born in Macedonia and his family has suffered much from the Turks, his father dying in prison. He came to America as a member of a committee to solicit funds to back a Macedonian uprising which came to naught.

PORTUGUESE CELEBRATE IN FITTING STYLE

The Lusitana Society on Lunailo and Alapai streets was the scene of much festivity Saturday night, when nearly two thousand people turned out to celebrate the second anniversary of the establishment of the Republic of Portugal.

Dancing in the main hall prevailed throughout the evening, the music being furnished by the Hawaiian band. Madam Alapai sang a number of Hawaiian songs. The host of the evening was Consul General Canavaro, and Major Camara had charge of the dancing. The hall was decorated with a number of the flags of the new republic and a large portrait of President Arriaga.

The grounds of the society were illuminated with hundreds of red and green electric lights, the national colors. The Concordia band furnished concert music. Greatly to the delight of hundreds of children and grown-ups who found no enjoyment in dancing, R. K. Bonine operated a motion picture machine and ran off several interesting reels.

During the evening refreshments were served and the festivities came to a close at midnight with cheers for the Republic of Portugal and for the consul general.

MISS ELIZABETH SCHLEIF BECOMES MRS. G. L. SMITH

Members of Star-Bulletin Staff
United at St. Andrew's Cathedral

The course of true love is generally accredited with being one blocked by numerous obstacles, but when it runs through a newspaper office it is about the roughest course imaginable, and the young couple who in the bustle and confusion of such an institution can attain their heart's desire are considered entitled to more than ordinary honors at the hands of the infant with the bow who watches over the affairs of lovers.

Two persons who journeyed over such a course leading through the Star-Bulletin offices, reached the happy end yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth Schleif, who for over a year has presided behind the counter in the business office, became the bride of George L. Smith, who for a number of months has been connected with the mechanical staff of the newspaper. The ceremony was performed at St. Andrew's Cathedral by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Restarick.

The wedding was a quiet one, only a few intimate friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom being present. Pierce Abbott appeared as best man, and the bride was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. McGrath. The bride was charmingly attired in white and carried a huge bouquet of white roses. She was given away by her mother.

Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Schleif, her father being the manager of the Consolidated Soda Works, and was born in Hawaii. The bridegroom, whose father is a berry grower of Lodi, Cal., came to the Islands from Richmond, Cal., nearly a year ago, and has been connected with the afternoon papers since his arrival.

NOT WELL ENOUGH TO WORK
